

Dual Recovery Project Training Calendar 2020

April 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Successful Engagement Practices: Enhancing Skills to Support Motivation & Engagement	This workshop will focus on enhancing provider skills to develop an atmosphere that encourages participant motivation and engagement. You will learn specific skills needed for successful participant engagement.	Thursday, 4/2/2020 Register Here	10am-12pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	2.0 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC

May 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Building Recovery Relationships	Let us demonstrate what research has proven: the biggest factor supporting individuals in recovery journey is the relationship with someone who believes in them. Learn how to create relationships of mutual respect that emphasize choice and the dignity of risk.	Monday, 5/18/2020 Register Here	10am-12pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	2.0 CASAC, SWK, LMHC
Playing our Part: Share Decision Making in the Era of Recovery	Join us for an engaging talk on the shared decision-making process, the concept of "learned helplessness" and the "dignity of choice" in the world of recovery based services.	Monday, 5/18/2020 Register Here	1pm-3pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	2.0 CASAC, SWK, LMHC

June 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Understanding Loneliness & Social Isolation: Impacts on People and Society at Large in a Connected World	Understanding the Social Determinants of Health and Mental Health, focusing attention on how health and mental health is largely influenced by social factors. This workshop begins to examine the multitude of impacts of loneliness in order to help people develop meaningful connections that heal.	Wednesday, 6/3/2020 Register Here	10am-12pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	1.5 CASAC, SWK, LMHC
Healing Through Mindfulness: Incorporating Mindful Strategies into Practice	This training will explore the exciting possibilities that mindfulness practice holds for healing for trauma. You will learn how to successfully introduce mindfulness to the people you serve, overcome obstacles to engaging people around this practice, and utilize concrete skills for applying mindfulness in your work.	Wednesday, 6/3/2020 Register Here	1pm-3pm	Broome County Library	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	2.0 CASAC, SWK, LMHC

July 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Strength-Based Supervision	This training supports supervisors to understand their role, learn the skills for effective supervision, and how to support, guide, and motivate their staff.	Thursday, 7/23/2020 Register Here	10am-12pm	Broome County Library Exhibit Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	2.0 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC
Supervision: Difficult Conversations	This training will review eight steps for maximizing the effectiveness of these conversations so that people feel safe and open to change. We will introduce the Transactional Analysis of communication as an approach to support the supervisor/supervisee relationship through these difficult conversations.	Thursday, 7/23/2020 Register Here	1pm-3pm	Broome County Library Exhibit Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	1.5 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC

August 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Recovery Through Group Process	This training will provide an in-depth review of Group Work, the history, process and the provider skills necessary to facilitate meaningful groups that assist people in achieving their goals.	Monday 8/17/2020 Register Here	1pm-3pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	2.0 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC

September 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Integrating Person Centeredness in Day-to-Day Practices	Learn about the nationally recognized person-centered approaches and how to implement them in your practice. Develop strong collaborations with those you serve, while better understanding their hopes and needs.	Monday, 9/28/2020 Register Here	10am-12pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	1.5 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC
Recovery Through Person-Centered Planning and Documentation	This training addresses a theoretical framework around documenting medical necessity in a person-centered way. Participants will be actively engaged in practical exercises to stimulate discussion and gain familiarity with the PROs standards of care and other related resources.	Monday, 9/28/2020 Register Here	1pm-3pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	1.5 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC

October 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Trauma Informed Care Comprehensive	Trauma Informed Care Comprehensive a combination of elements of creating environments that heal and program implementation.	Wednesday, 10/28/2020 Register Here	1pm-4pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	3.0 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC

November 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Developing Effective Staff Through Teambuilding and Collaboration	Working with others and collaborating with others is an essential part of providing effective recovery-based services to the people that we serve and support. This training will focus on building effective and collaborative teams, developing ways to strengthen the team and identifying when your team may be in need of additional supports and engagement.	Tuesday, 11/17/2020 Register Here	1pm-3pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	2.0 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC

December 2020

Title	Description	Date	Time	Location	Presenter	Cost	CEU
Transforming Your Program: Creating and Sustaining a Recovery Culture Change	Organizational success relies heavily on the success of their supervisors. They are the glue between executive leadership and staff. This training will focus on middle managers and how they can use their unique roles to create and sustain a culture of recovery in their programs.	Monday, 12/14/2020 Register Here	10am-12pm	Broome County Library Decker Room	NYAPRS: Robert Statham	Free	1.5 CASAC pending, SWK, LMHC